Tuesday Program Materials

There are no special materials required for Tuesday's optional elements, but comfortable shoes are recommended for the tour. Participants are encouraged to explore the International Civil Rights Center and Museum (ICRCM) Primer assigned as homework as well as the additional links on the Resources page. Some of the images on display at the ICRCM are graphic and disturbing. The visit will include a walking tour of about 90 minutes followed by a facilitated reflections session in the auditorium.

Wednesday Program Materials

Reflections Prompts

Memorable Messages: Messages that you remember over a long period of time and perceive as having influenced your life.

- What memorable messages did you receive about education? Careers? College?
 - These can be messages of support and encouragement as well as messages dissuading you or warning of different paths.
- Who influenced your thinking about your education?
- How did these messages influence your decision-making about your education?

Thursday Program Materials

All materials needed for Thursday's program will be provided during the session.

LNC Learning Model and Guiding Principles

The LNC Learning Model, Guiding Principles, and Class Agreements are included below and are available through this link.

LNC Learning Model

LNC Learning Model Guiding Principles

- What personal history am I bringing to the conversations?
- What are my biases?
- What do I already think?
- Am I only hearing the things that reinforce what I already think?

LNC30 Class Agreements

Be	Do
Respectful	Act Authentically
Openminded	Listen Actively
Honest & Vulnerable	Reserve Judgment
Present & Engaged	Practice Grace & Accountability
Committed to the journey	Learn & Grow
