What We Do

Community Response Team

Responds to issues involving economic and/or social injustice in the community.

Elder Response Initiative

Provides free services to senior citizens to combat displacement associated with rapid gentrification, help seniors maintain in their homes, mitigate the affordable housing crisis, and preserve the history and culture of historical communities.

SaluteU

Provides education and resources to youth involved with the criminal system or engaging in activities that tend to lead to involvement with the criminal system.

The Eatmon Project

Provides education and engagement to black voters and engages youth to participate in such efforts.

CHALLENGES IN THE COMMUNITY

- Challenges faced by Black Charlotteans:
 - Housing & Displacement
 - Education & Training
 - Healthcare Access
 - Economic Mobility
 - Community Voice & Trust Leadership

The Power of Partnerships

FTS + Community Input + Funding = Community Transformation

“To promote the health of a population and achieve health equity, the social determinants of health must be addressed. These determinants include economic stability, education, social and community context, health and health care, and the neighborhood and built environment (DHHS, 2018b).”
